G. C. Morris
Dear Friend

My letter of 27th inst enclosing one from Dr Morris to Jas Chestnut & others, Exors, has been rec'd expressing his wish to execute a deed relinquishing to his children any claim he might have under the will of G. Chestnut to the legacies to their mother.

In this connection we would state that as Exors of G.C. we have nothing to do with the real Est except to see that the collateral inheritance Tax is paid to the State of Ill. - it goes by will at once to the devisees.

We will however as individuals gladly assist you in carrying out any arrangements you may make between yourselves.

As the conveyance from Dr Ill. to his children may embrace a large amount of property, real & personal, for a nominal consideration, it seemed proper that the authority to prepare such a deed should come directly from him, & not as a suggestion from us or our legal representative, & we trust that Dr Morris will not think that we have advised him in so important a question, or that we, as Exors, consider it necessary for the proper settlement of the Est, as his letter would imply.

With this understanding we will have the paper prepared & forwarded for execution.

Awaiting your reply

We are resp'y
