C 2 8 3

1881 March - April Galloway C. Morris incoming letters 1994

SIDE TWO

P.S. The accompanying bill covers the entire cost of the Confirmatory Deed & Edward Otis Hinckley's legal advice. Considering the magnitude of the Est, the interests involved & the high legal standing of E.O.H, we think it a reasonable charge. While the Confirmatory Deed was important to correct a possible error in the Trusts & prevent them ever being questioned, the great object was to remove from the title to all the Real Est a decided slur upon it, & as it was held in common by the three residuary devisees any thing wrong with the title of one would necessarily affect the title to the whole & prevent it being sold. It would seem to us that the residuary devisees to the Real Estate should pay for the deed.

H. T. King
Apr 29th 81