My Dear Son

I am heartily sorry that I have given way even to the slight extent to the anxious doubtful feeling which dictated my letter to which your reply has been received. and more than that ashamed of that I wrote thus money which you will not receive I hope until this also reaches you

The Postal Card was sent as I began to feel a little lightened of my load. & now that I am cheered by your loving "pat" on my shoulder! shall I trust & hope

Do not get worried about me. I shall be home soon
I am very well
