SIDE TWO

go on to trust myself and those I love to the good Providence of God.

Thank you for your patience with me, and for your information about the Coal Co. The amount lost looks very formidable to eyes so little accustomed to such things as I am.

It has ceased raining & Emily & I have had that walk which did us good & we shall go to the Missionary Meeting this Evening. I have not worried her by any manifestation of my disturbement. I did not allude to the Small Pox in her presence until this afternoon & then without any trouble. Mr Cannon has some offers of boarding and if they come we may not put at quiet. Emily asked how I would like to ~~go~~ try Bedford Springs. I am trying to cease from anxiety, & to be still.

Love to dear Hannah & Mary D whom we should be glad to see if we remain here & it is thought safe for her to come.

Thank Anne for her letter which was of great benefit to me. I am not well, but much more hopeful.

Your loving father Caspar Morris
