SIDE TWO

and it would be no inconvenience to us to have Mrs Thurber and Mary Gibson there with us. Mary G. might probably save Louise some care & steps and really be of service & it would fill the rooms & save us from any other company which we should have the comfort of giving them the advantage of change I should not be willing to interfere with their enjoyment. They are both nice women & know how to conduct themselves under such circumstances Then wd. Splendid your sister wishes to take Harry with her & her family to some mountain place or have some change for them. The only obstacle seems to be my fitfulness and that is equally an objection to every plan can be proposed.

We will think over it carefully & I pray that God will overrule our judgments & enable us to decide rightly & wisely. With fondest love fervently & undying all varying phases of my feelings & for Hannah & the dear boys

Your ever loving father Caspar Morris
