0324

1881 June Galloway C. Morris incoming letters MS 1994

SIDE TWO

case and has filled me with anxiety for August. I had thought they would know the care of all things. I am have only to enjoy. So helpless ~~am I~~ I and so dependent. It is not yet too late to change all our plans & Cousin & I stay here instead of my going to Newport & Emily to stay with Which appears to me now to be just that much fatigue & waste of money for nothing at all. Perhaps Emily will find pleasure in her visit to West River: very probably she will not: and who can blame Malaria there? She can not remain later than your boys do she must come away with them — Where shall she come? Where are your Sister & Harry be? — Who can take care of her? Anne at Allaire Aby & you & Hannah at Eaglemere I (even if I could do any thing which I can not) at Newport. All seems to me drawing at loose ends Now if we remain here You can take if you please your own