0335

1881 July - November Galloway C. Morris incoming letters MS 1994

SIDE ONE

great so that I find it almost irresistible But I shrink from the undertaking. Do you know what Emily herself desires? I am beginning to be afraid we shall never be able to reach any decision. You & Israel are clear headed - what do you yourselves think? and Hannah too. We must be perfectly open with each other. Do not let my capricious uncertain condition overbalance your calm judgment about what will be best. It is not what I would like - That must be left out of consideration. We must bring ourselves down to "hard pan" What is the best arrangement. I am quite unsettled about the 1st of September and