Hints To Monument Purchasers

Cheap monuments are dear monuments, because like other cheap goods, they do not give full value for one's money. Mathias' monuments are stand quality, at moderate prices Mathias presents at all times the lowest priced monuments worth buying, and all the intermediate grades up to the highest priced monuments worth buying, which emphasizes this well known fact—Mathias' is the best place to buy monuments whether simple or elaborate.

If you intend to have your Cemetery Lot improved before Memorial Day, place your order for the work now, while there is sufficient time to give this matter the thoughtful consideration it deserves.

BIG CIRCUS DAY DRAWS NEARER

The day of all days in the calendar of the small boy has almost arrived and the youngsters of this vicinity are anxiously counting the hours until circus day. It looks now as though a large percentage of the local population, both young and old, will be present at one of the performances when the Barnum & Bailey Greatest Show on Earth exhibits in Baltimore on Monday 10-11.

Not in several years has so much local interest been evinced in a circus event as has been displayed this season in the coming exhibition of the Barnum & Bailey Circus. It is promised that the show will display more new and novel features than ever before, including 100 new acts from Europe.

The principal feature is the new Oriental, spectacular pagent, "Persia, or the Pageants of The Thousand and One Nights." This great display, which is portrayed by 1,350 persons, and hundreds of horses, elephants and camels, depicts in pageantry the famous tales of the Arabian Nights. In New York City, where this pageant was produced for the first time this Spring, It was announced the most gorgeous and stupendous Oriental display ever presented in America.

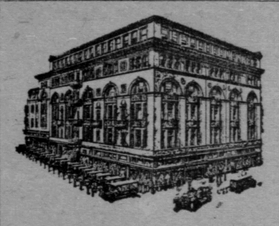

Among the foreign circus novelties to be seen for the first time this season are four troupes of wonderful Chinese performers direct from Pekin, the Great Hanneford family of riders; Signor Bagonghi, famous dwarf equestrian from Italy; James Teddy, champion jumper of the world; Pallenberg's two troupes of trained bears, and a host of other novel acts too numerous to mention individually.

The Barnum & Bailey circus is traveling this season on five trains, made up of 89 cars. More than 1,400 persons are carried in the various departments of this great show, which included an enlarged menagerie of 108 cages and 41 elephants.

A brilliant, new, three mile street parade will be given on the streets during the morning hours preceding the first performance.

AN ICE CREAM SOCIAL

IN MEMORIAM

In sad, but loving remembrance of Miss Madeline Orem who departed this life April 25th, 1916.

Last Tuesday morning she laid down her cross and said goodbye.
She was the queen of all her friends.
She's only gone to her coronation.
Dr. M.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad, but loving remembrance of my dear husband, John W. Ogg, who departed this life April the 26, 1910.

And his well-remembered foot steps,
I was always glad to hear,
But now since they are silent,
I've shed many a tear.

No cross, no crown, they tell me,
But the cross is hard to bear,
I miss you more each day I live.

At home and everywhere,
God send me some token
From the spirit world above,
That my heart all crushed and broken,
May be healed by hevenly love.

God takes the loved ones from our homes
But never from our hearts.
By his loving wife.

Sore Throat Don'ts.

When the children have sore throat, don't blister their necks with lamp oil. Don't torture them with a foul smelling piece of fat meat, wrapped about the neck. Don't imagine there is medical virtue in an old sock or piece of red flannel. Don't believe in antiquated superstitions.

A sore throat is a serious matter and is not to be healed by such make-believe remedies. The use of such methods is simply putting the patient to needless torture. Use a little sore throat wisdom and give them TONSILINE and the throat will heal quickly.

25 cents and 50 cents. Hospital Size $1.00. All Druggists.
