SIDE TWO

re, but things have seemed as far off as ever from being straightened, but we hope when Father comes back to day he will tell us what Cousin Emily thinks as to the time we had better move.
We felt that a great deal would have to depend on Mary Kane's foot as it was not at all worth while to go there while she was not able to do her work. I was away from home for two or three days last week, when I came home found your letter which Fanny had forwarded Fanny, Lee & Ann are here found Sister Maria and I think we will all very pleasant summer spent at Rockaway from Cousin Emily that the effects of cousin Mrs Kane's description of is very attractive. I am very pleased to learn Emily
