Dear Gal

2 P.M.

I am afraid Mr Hawes party for the purchase of Virginia lands is as mythical as previous ones as up to this morning I have heard nothing from him. McMurtrie has been in his office all the morning but Mr. H. has not put in an appearance. So it goes.

I will look out for Elliston and shall be glad to have him spend sunday with us.

Love to Father Cousin E. Hannah and all your family in both houses.

All well at home

Affectionately
Israel W. Morris.

205 P.M.
Elliston just arrived all right and will go home with me. I note Reparks in regard to warantee and will follow them out.

Philadelphia, 188

my office to E. A. Quintard New York on the subject. I told him that the papers could be got ready by that time and that as Cousin E. was away from the city it would be necessary to get a Power of Atty from her to me or some one else to execute the proper papers. I therefore telegraphed you and herewith enclose a Power of Atty which please have executed before an Attorney and returned to me immediately so that it will reach me certainly Saturday morning. I consider this a good sale and hope that there will be no slip in carrying it out.

Sorry to hear that Father is under the weather but hope that by this time he is entirely recovered. Yours

Israel W. Morris
