Dear Gal

This morning Mr Haas appeared at McMurtrie's office and stated that his party were all ready to consummate the purchase of Virginia Lands but the New York parties wanted their Atty to see the Brief of Title which he knew to be all correct, and was glad to have them examine. He says that before this week is out they will close the matter. I hope so.

Eff will forward you to day some papers from Baltimore which are intended to close matters up there. I have looked over them and taking the data contained together with the Amts heretofore rec'd from there I think they are right but there are some items given in gross which are
