1882 September [redacted] Galloway C. Morris incoming letters 1994

Lake George. Warren Co. N.Y.
September 10th 1882.

Mr. Francis T. King.
Baltimore.

My dear Sir. I am just in receipt of a letter from my nephew Effingham B. Morris which contains the following passage – ~~"Mr King has written to father to make the explanation as they were~~ "Mr. Carey has written to me and Mr King has written" "to father asking us to make the explanation as they were" "too deeply pained by the inference in your letter that" "they had made an improper use of the money to" "reply" – and altho it is Sunday I hasten to write you

I did not keep a copy of my ~~letter~~ late letter to the Executors therefore cannot now refer to it but am astonished to find that any such inference as here stated could be drawn from it and desire to state that I never had any such feeling and therefore could not have intended to write anything capable of such interpretation – and am exceedingly
