1881 September [redacted] Galloway C. Morris incoming letters 1994

When according to the accounts, even with these items of sums "paid" me or "paid for" me which I could not make out and one of which I know had not been "paid" me, these very accounts showed a considerable balance due me — ~~I decline to pay because~~ I had no intention of making any reference such as mentioned and now apologize if there is any such — and ask for a copy of that letter or that both that and this shall be destroyed — This is more than Mr James Carey Jr did when I wrote to him in the Spring of 1881. telling him in ~~a very~~ what I intended for a pleasant way that a letter of his to me had hurt my feelings — his reply was ~~a very curt~~ about this "Sorry but I have nothing to say — in other words doubling ~~one that he had nothing to say~~ the blow —

What I ask for is some statement of account that will show me how it is that I owe anything and how much I owe — As soon as I receive such an account I will gladly settle — and I think I am not asking too much from the Executors in asking this — Israel & E. B. M. have both written me but their figures did not agree with
