1882 September Galloway C. Morris Incoming letters 1994

Effingham B. Morris,
Attorney at Law.
No. 404 Locust St. Philadelphia.

Sept. 11th 1882

My dear Uncle Gall,

Carey writes me to day that Mr. King has sent you an explanation of the item of "Cash paid for you" in accordance with my letter of request of Friday last.

My impression is that you will find in one of Carey's letters to me that you now have, that the amounts paid by the executors on account of the residuary real estate some months ago — & for which the parties receipted as if they had received the cash so paid — are brought into the final Auditors Account and redistributed there for the purpose of equalization only.

I infer from Carey's letter that the explanation of the items composing the total sum said to have been paid for you was sent you by Mr. King at the time of payment, & that he now sends you copies of the letters, receipts, &c which passed between you. at that time.

Yours Resty

E. B. Morris.
