Philadelphia, Sept 1st 1882

P.S. I have just heard that Mr King has forwarded to you a statement showing the way your acct was made up.

Dear Gal

Yours of 9th is duly at hand and I am glad to hear that my explanation of the Estate Accts has tended to clear up some of their obscurity. I remitted to sister her share of the cash division of Real Estate and she has this morning returned it to me to be applied as a first payment on Acct of West River farm stating that she will settle the balance when she comes to Philad.a in a few weeks. I do not know exactly what to do with this so shall open a special Bank Acct in my name as trustee and deposit the amt $2643.05/100 until some definite action can be taken. I will go on for Father's party if you will advise me what day they desire to start.

Yours Truly
Israel W. Morris
