1882 October-December Galloway C. Morris incoming letters MS 1994

of the balance sheets in your release it is a matter of indifference to us; except as we suggest on the ground of uniformity.

We feel sure that you can appreciate what a great trouble and annoyance your delay has been to the executors, and what a great loss of valuable time it has been to their counsel, and hope therefore that you will use all possible haste in bringing matters to a close. —

We enclose you the release which you returned to us to serve as a copy for the formal parts. We have already forward full balance sheets.

Yours &c
