Woodrow Wilson Day

Saturday, October 28, has been set aside as Woodrow Wilson Day, and when it dawns the country is to receive from Shadow Lawn "a proclamation of the New Freedom."

The New Freedom is a little late in arriving, but this may be excused in view of the many remaining vestiges of the old freedom that have had to be done away with, such as the freedom of Americans to inves their money in foreign countries with reasonable certainty that their property rights would be safeguarded, and the freedom of American citizens to sail the seas in personal security.

Everybody, by grace of the old freedom, will remain free to celebrate Woodrow Wilson Day as he sees fit, but we hope no one will feel so emancipated from the resraints of decency as to refer on that day to the regrettable loss of American lives in Mexico or on the Lusitania.—N.Y.Sun

CARROLLTON HEIGHTS

Hallowe'en was very pleasantly celebrated by the Bethel school, they having held a splendid entertainment in Carrollton Hall. The program consisted of exercises, recitations and song. The children were clad in unique costumes suitable to the occasion. After the program Hallowe'en pranks were indulged in by all present. Dainty refreshments were sold. The teacher, Mr. E. C. Ebaugh, wishes to thank the patrons, friends and all who in any way helped to make this such a success.

Mrs. Noah Arbaugh had the misfortune of falling down a flight of stairs, rendering her unconscious for a time. She is better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shilling and Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Taylor spent last Sunday in Baltimore as the guests of relatives. Mrs. Taylor remained for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Caple and Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Buchman, of Hooksville, spent last Sunday with Mrs. Emily Algire and family.

Mr. H. R. Taylor is canning Keifter pears at his canning factory.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Carr, of Emory, spent last Sunday with their daughter Mrs. Harold Spencer and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker and family spent last Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. Caroline Baker, of Arcadia, who has been a sufferer from gangrene for sometime.

Rev. Steward Hartman delivered a splendid missionary sermon at St. John's church last Sunday morning before the W. M. Society of that place. In the afternoon, Rev. Jacobs preached.

Mr. Edward Kraft, of Baltimore, spent last week end with his wife and son, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Houck and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stone attended a "company" given Mr. Grant Leister at his home last Saturday evening.

News has just been received of the death of Mr. Frank Shipley who died in a Baltimore hospital. It will be remembered that he was removed from his comfortable bungalow at this place to the hospital in September, because of a stroke of paralysis. His relatives and friends have our sympathy.

Some of our folks had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Daniel Poling, at Westminster, last Wednesday. It is needless to say they were delighted.

Mrs. E. C. Ebaugh spent several days recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hahn, of Pleasant Valley. Her sister, Miss Ruth Hahn, spent last Monday with her.

The L. T. L. is planning to take a prominent part in the big temperance parade Saturday. They will be equipped with songs and yells, and will travel in a float. The W. C. T. U. will also be represented.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Greene had as their guests last Sunday, their son, Mr. Chester Greene, Messrs. R. A. Evay, J. Morris and C. R. Reese, of Baltimore, and Mr. Clyde Greene and family, of Boring.

Fourteen cars from this vicinity entered the "Dry" tour last Tuesday, with the following drivers: Messrs. Luther Davidson, Jacob and John Houck, Benjamin Croft, Jr., A. M. Sharrer, Edward Martin, Emory Shaffer, Norris, Walter and Oscar Taylor, Grant and Harold Spencer, James Shilling and Rev. Fields. It is a trip long to be remembered and a most remarkable one in many ways viz: Because of the fact that there were 217 cars in line, instead of 100 which had been counted on, and aside from minor troubles to a few cars not a single accident ocurred. The distance covered was 83 miles and the majority of the cars made the entire tour without a single mishap. Another remarkable feature was that they traveled on schedule time. The tour was one round of pleasure from start to finish and was made up of a most enthusiastic bunch of temperance boosters. Too much praise and credit cannot be given the ones who planned the tour, or to the Taneytown people who served the splendid lunch in such delightful and systematic way. It was greatly enjoyed by a hungry crowd. Carrollton can boast of the honor of having with its delegation a gentleman in the person of Mr. Jeremiah Ebaugh, who has passed his 83rd mile-stone. made the trip from start to finsh, feelng none the worse from hs experience. He has been an advocate of temperance from his youth, having taken the pledge at the age of 12 years. We feel sure not many districts can claim this honor. We trust he may be permitted to live to see the nation go Dry.

TANEYTOWN

Master Kenneth Koutz broke his right leg Tuesday evening by jumping off the yard fence.

Mrs. Anna May Jones and three children and Maurice Albaugh and wife, of Thurmont, spent Sunday with Mrs. Margaret and Miss Emma Reaver.

J. Albert Angell, wife and daughter Lena, Lester W. Angell and wife, Mrs. Jacob Null and daughter Anna and George R. Sauble attended the funeral of Miss Dora Hess at Buckeystown on Saturday.

Miss Ada Schultz, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Clara Reindollar.

Rev. L. B. Hafer with Jere J. Garner as delegate, are attending the sessions of the Lutheran Synod in session at the Church of the Reformation in Baltimore.

Mrs. D. W. Garner went to Frederick City Hospital on Thursday last and was successfully operated on for gall stones on Saturday. She is getting along nicely.

The Dry parade on Tuesday was a grand success, far beyond our expectations, and the best that ever came to town, there being 217 cars in line. There was music by the Boy Scout Band, speaking and singing, and sandwiches and coffee was served by the young ladies, in baskets decorated with yellow crepe paper, and Hallowe'en emblems, such as black cats, witches, broom sticks and the like.

Mrs. John Hockensmith, Mrs. Curtis Bowers and son John spent Saturday last in Frederick.

Misses Hilda and Helen Eckard spent the week end in Walkerville.

D. W. Ohler, wife and Delmont Koons spent from Saturday until Monday in Gettersburg

Miss Lucy Ruhland, of Woodsboro, is the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Howard Bower, and Miss Helen Ruhland.

William Hockensmith, wife and daughters Carrie and Vesta, Mrs. Mary Hockensmith and Miss Carrie Miller spent Sunday with John Hockensmith and wife.

Mrs. Sentman and Mrs. Timbell, of Gap, Pa., are the guests of Robt. S. McKinney and wife,

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Margaret McKinney, and Miss Agnes Barr, of Gettysburg, were Monday visitors at Robert S. Mc. Kinney's.

The banks strongly condemn speculation in securities bought on money loaned by rival institutions.

EMORY

The Sunday school will hold an oyster supper at Mr. and Mrs. Wesley M. Bond's on November 25, 1916, at which time a barrel of vegetables will be packed. Be sure and come—bring your donation, have a good supper and enjoy yourself.

The Ladies Aid Society will hold an oyster supper at Mrs. Elias Fowble's on December 9. Don't forget the date.

Miss Jane Fowble and Mrs. Cecelia Fowble, of Baltimore, spent the week end with relatives in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Martin and family, of Hampstead, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Burk and daughter Mildred, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Taylor and family.

Miss Georgit Beam, of Baltimore, Mr. Paul Reed, of Hampstead, and Mr. and Mrs. William Beam and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Blizzard.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet at Mrs. Claude Leight's, November 2. All are welcome.

Mrs. Rebecca Caple, of Finksburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Nicholas Mummaugh.

Mr. Leslie Taylor, of Hampstead, spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. W. M. Bushey.

Mr. Haden Gill lost three valuable hogs last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Raver and children, Evelyn and Woodrow, and Mrs. James Taylor spent Thursday in Baltimore.

TRIBUTE OF APPRECIATION

Action taken by the Directors of Public Hall Stock Company, Frizellburg, on the death of Leonard Zile

WHEREAS, It pleased the Divine Ruler to sever from our midst a worthy and esteemed co-worker, Leonard Zile, and

WHEREAS, The long and intimate relations held with him in the loyal discharge of his duties pertaining to this company, makes it highly befitting that we record our sincere appreciation of him; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That in his death the Company has sustained the loss of a venerable character, and one typical of true manhood. That the pleasant associations for many years, and the deep interest which he untiringly manifested by his excellent counsel and generous contributions will long be cherished in our memory.

RESOLVED, That in the removal of such a life the community deeply realizes the loss of a kind neighbor, a model citizen, and for his many good examples the public is indebted. That in the perplexities of life triumph came to him by exercising the virtue of patience, gentleness and truth.

RESOLVED, That with sincere sympathy for the bereaved family and immediate friends we express our hope that the sad loss will be crowned with the great good by Him who giveth and taketh.

RESOLVED, That these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of the Board, a copy sent to the home of the deceased, and published in two of the county papers.

There is a widespread feeling that an ultimatum and absolutely final last word should be issued every day that the European powers break their pledges.

The voters would probably all be willing to get out election day and exercise the blood bought privilege of suffrage, if only a chicken pie supper was served them.
