0519

1883 April-August Galloway C. Morris Incoming Letters

going occasionally to town for purchases. Her good judgment is shown by the fact that she has already laid in $200 of Christmas toys at some prices. They are Christian Women. The Oldest the Mill keeping her Position on her loom that she may head it were her horse, when some neighbors expressed their condolence she said "The Lord gave & the Lord hath taken away blessed be the Name of the Lord". In two days they had the goods they had saved arranged in the new store & were ready for customers. Mary went to Mr Childs who had offered to assist in any case she should marry & gave her $50. This quite set up the good woman supplying them with clothing &c which had been burned. Thus we are not without overflowing mercies, & this illustrates the blessing promised to those who love God & keep his commandments. But I have written more than I ought. Come & the boys deserve their share for bravery & the boys. That the blessing of the Lord may rest on you all & your houses be consecrated to His service with the earnest desire of your dear long father

Asparc Morris

Sent to Mr Randolph
14th & 31st of July