MANCHESTER

The weather conditions at this writing are improved as to cold but the snow has gone and the roads are muddy and disagreeable to travel, but the atmosphere has considerable of spring wrapped in its folds which would be welcomed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Leese on York street celebrated their thirtieth wedding anniversary on Sunday 18th that was quite an enjoyable affair as well as a family reunion. When the dinner hour arrived the company had an object lesson of the hospitality of the host and hostess when taken to the dining room they found the table appointments first class with a dinner that equaled the surroundings and to which all did justice, and at which they had representatives of four generations that too, added to the pleasures of the day. The host and hostess were remembered with presents of gold and fine linen. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George E. Leese, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Baltozer, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Leese, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Leese, and children, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Loats, Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Leese, Mrs. William J. Eisenbrown, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Bixler, Mrs. Lloyd B. Loats and daughters, Rev. and Mrs. Frank H. Blatt, Misses Ella, Mary and Ada Leese, Mrs. William S. Lloyd, Mrs. Annie Brilhart, son and daughter, Miss Margaret Fuhrman.

A delegation from Pocahontas Tribe of Red Men motored to Hanover on Friday evening and enjoyed the initiation of 63 applicants in the red Men's lodge. The meeting was held in the Opera House. The work was given on the stage that was brilliantly lighted and brought out the rich dress of the different teams. The first degree was given by the home team—the second by the Red Line team, and the third by the York team. Mr. J. B. Lynerd who was our informant says the different characters were perfect in the work that was enjoyed by a large audience of members and visitors.

The reformed clubs held their meetings last week at the home of Miss Fannie Ross on Thursday evening and at the home of Mrs. H. T. J. Lamotte, on Friday evening, enjoying good a social time and refreshments.

Mr. John Brodbeck, near Greenmount, left the Hotel de Stick on Thursday morning 8th, in his auto to drive Messrs. Emory Berwager, Dr. D. B. Barnhart and William Fuhrman to the J. A. Frederick farm in Baltimore County. At Hampstead they took the Macadam road and flitted along at a lively gait through the light snow. After passing Grace M. E. Church, they came to the junction of the Macadam and the concrete that is not as wide as the Macadam and the driver found that two of the wheels were on the concrete and two running in a rut at the side. He at once yanked the machine and the front wheels responded but the hind ones skidded and before they knew what was wrong the machine was on its side and the occupants piled on top of each other. By answering each other they found none hurt badly and all made for terra firma; help from a near home with chaines and levers, the machine was righted looking worse for the mishap with a broken wind shield, bent fenders and curtains in bad shape. It was found that the engine was O. K. and they were able to make a slow return trip to Hampstead to the garage. Mr. H. N. Burgoon who was phoned to, met them and brought the gentlemen home. Mr. Berwager was cut near the eyes. Mr. Barnhart had a bruised shoulder, Mr. Fuhrman, a cut on the face, while the driver was not hurt at all, but neither care of having any more such experiences.

Miss Susie Bixler was employed at the home of Mr. Charles Brilhart from Monday to Thursday of last week and when she got to her home on North Main street on Thursday evening, she found some sneakthief had pried a back window and ransacked every drawer, littered the floors with bedding and clothing in fact had everything topsyturvy; 25 cents and a few loose pennies were missing.

The supper of the Red Men on Friday and Saturday evenings, was well attended, considering the weather and bad condition of the roads.

Mr. George A. Shower's condition has improved since our last and he can be made more comfortable.

STATEWOOD

The Y. P. B. of the W. C. T. U. met at the M. E. parsonage Friday evening, February 16. The meeting was called to order by Miss Annabel Pardew, the president. Miss Elsie Parrish read the Crusade psalm. All joined in singing "The White Ribbon Herald" after which Rev. J. R. Pardew led in prayer. In spite of the bad weather roll call found ten members and seven visitors present who when their names were called answered with appropriate texts or quotations. Reports from the different committees showed that the young folks are beginning to go to work in earnest though this was only their second meeting. Miss Emma Pardew read an interesting account of the life and work of Miss Frances Willard. Mrs. Pardew presented each member a little white ribbon bow to be worn as a badge. After the singing of several temperance songs games were played which were participated in by the entire company. Refreshments were served. Everybody had a good time and it was eleven o'clock before the good-byes were said. The next meeting will be at the parsonage, March 16.

Members of the Royal Workers Literary Society and the faculty of School No. 6, of Statewood, were entertained at a valentine party, Wednesday, February 14, from four until six o'clock by their honorary member, Miss Isabelle Lauterbach, principal of the school. The guests were invited to the assembly room in the school building where they enjoyed playing many games. Later in the afternoon refreshments consisting of harlequin ice cream and cake, were served. The members of the society were delighted with the entertainment and the patrons of the school appreciate the good work which is being done here by the faculty of Staewood school.
