Miss Katharine McKinney spent the week end at home, with her parents.

On Wednesday evening, February 21st, Mr. W. T. Fleming was given a surprise, it being his birthday. The friends gathered early, slipped in the parlor and kept quiet as possible, until all were there. Then by some skillful planning by his wife. Mrs. Fleming was called from the store room, into the parlor where all voices yelled "surprised", and he was surprised indeed. He soon joined us in our games and everyone seemed to have a lovely time. Social games were played until 11 o'clock, then we were invited to the dining-room where a cake was burning brightly with 30 candles, which were lighted by Mr. Fleming, assisted by Mr. Frank Dorsey. Ample justice was done to the many good candies, cakes and ice cream.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. B. BIRTHDAY DANCE

A most enjoyable birthday dance was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Freyman in honor of Mr. Freyman's thirty-seventh birthday, January the twenty-third, but it being a bad night only a few of the near neighbors were present, but on Saturday night at an early hour the guests began to arrive. The music was furnished by Mr. Charles Wagner and son Walter. Dancing was dulged in until twelve o'clock when they were invited to the dinning room where cake, candies, nuts, lemonade and root beer were served in abundance. A beautiful birthday cake baked by Mrs. Freyman's mother, Mrs. William O. Lockard, graced the center of the table with 37 candles, six different collors, set in blue and pink rose buds. The candles were lighted by a friend, Miss Bertie Brown. Mr. Freyman cut the birthday cake. He received some very handsome presents and some very useful ones were presented to him by his aunt, Mrs. John L. Freyman, which he appreciates very highly. At an early hour in the morning the guests began to depart, wishing Mr. Freyman many more happy birthdays. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Freyman, Mr. and Mrs. John L. A. WARFIELD MONROE

Mr. A. Warfield Monroe, well known in the insurance business in Baltimore and also prominent in Republican politics for many years, died suddenly of appoplexy Wednesday afternoon in the lobby of the Hotel Junker. Mr. William Grant, 2903 West North avenue, was called in and the body was sent to the Mercy Hospital. Mr. Monroe had been suffering from the grip for the last month, but during the last few days was allowed by his physician to go out for a few hours daily. Wednesday he down townETAO7899 AA9AA day he went down town to his office from his home, 2428 North Charles street, and after transacting some business stopped at the hotel.

Mr. Monroe was born in Hereford, Baltimore county, 72 years ago. He was the son of Rev. Thomas H. W. Monroe, a Methodist minister. His mother was a descendant of the Warfields, of this county.

Early in his career, he began to take great interest in Republican politics and was a close political friend of James A. Gary whom he accompanied an several campaign trips.

He was one of the trustees of the estate of the late David H. Carroll, having been appointed sole trustee, but later a petition was filed for additional trustees and ex-Mayor Timanus and Rignel W. Baldwin were appointed.

Having been a member of the Masonic fraternity for many years, members of that order will act as pallbearers at his funeral. He was a lifelong member at First Methodist Episcopal Church. He is survived by his widow (Mrs. Mary S. Wright Monroe), a daughter (Mrs. Nellie M. Mueller), one niece and a nephew.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

The question for each man to settle is not what he would do if he had the means, time, influence, and educational advantages; but what will he do with the things he has.—Hamilton W. Mabie.

FOOD FOR THE FOLKS.

It is the cooking and serving of the common things in an uncommon way which takes genius; any food attractively served is better enjoyed and better digested.

Caramelized Rice and Apple Pudding.—Brown one cupful of sugar in a saucepan or iron frying pan; be careful not to burn. Add three cupfuls of boiling water, simmer and stir until the caramel is entirely dissolved, then add a cupful of well-washed rice. Boil for five minutes and turn into a pudding dish lined with sliced apples. Place in a hot oven and stir until the rice is tender. Bake five minutes longer and serve cold with cream.

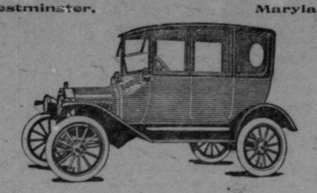

Nut and Cheese Roast.—Cook two tablespoonfuls of chopped onion in one tablespoonful of butter until brown. Mix a cupful of grated cheese, a cupful of nut meats and a cupful of soft crumbs moistened with a little water from the pan in which the onion was cooked, season with salt, pepper and the juice of half a lemon. Pour into a baking dish and bake until brown.

Baked Celery With Cheese.—Wash and cut celery into inch pieces and cook in boiling water, salted water until tender, reserving the stock. Use the stock to make a sauce, using four tablespoonfuls each of butter and flour, cooked together; a little cream and the liquor in which the celery was cooked. Season well with salt and paprika and add to the celery; put a layer of this in the bottom of a buttered dish and a layer of finely grated cheese, cover with more of the celery and sauce, finish with buttered crumbs and bake until the crumbs are delicately browned.

Broiled Oysters a la Francaise.—Butter ten scallop shells and place four or five oysters in each. Mince one large onion, half a clove of garlic, and cook in five tablespoonfuls of butter until lightly browned. Add the oyster liquor with a cupful of crisp bread crumbs, salt, pepper and parsley; cover the oysters and dot with bits of butter. Place shells on a tin sheet and broil quickly.

That Bad Back.
Do you have a dull, steady ache in the small of the back—sharp, stabbing twinges when stooping or lifting—distressing urinary disorders? For bad back and weakened kidneys Westminster residents recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this Westminster statement.
Mrs. C. V. Bankert, 64 Pennsylvania avenue., Westminster, says: "About six years ago I had a severe attack of kidney trouble and suffered very much. My back pained me and I felt so bad that I couldn't do my house work. The kidney secretions were scanty and contained sediment. My doctor didn't help me much so when a friend told me of Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box at the Shaw Drug Co. I immediately saw great relief. I still use Doan's Kidney Pills whenever I need them, as they are a wonderful kidney medicine."
Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Bankert had. Foster Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo. N. Y. 1

SPRING COLDS ARE DANGEROUS
Sudden changes of temperature and underwear bring spring colds with stuffed up head, sore throat and general cold symptoms. A dose of Dr. King's New Discovery is sure relief, this happy combination of antiseptic basams clears the head, soothes the irritated membranes and what might have been a lingering cold is broken up. Don't stop treatment when relief is first felt as a half cured cold is dangerous. Take Dr. King's New Discovery till your cold is gone. 1
