1884 August-September Galloway C. Morris Incoming letters 1994

to day ~~this morning~~, to send it to Galloway C Morris, who is still at Lake George, and when I have his answer, will reply to the other contents of your letter, as it may be better to leave the adjustment of all these matters until you come to Philadelphia. —

Very respectfully, yours
Emily Hollingsworth

Dear Gally, I will make no comment on this letter, but await your reply. The impression on my mind was, that I had paid the whole of the $1000, Mr McMurtrie's charge, but I may be incorrect. I asked you the question while we were at Lenox, but do not remember that you gave me any answer. Before Rollin's letter came to-day, I thought of writing to you, to ask how all were, as it seemed long since I had heard. A letter from your sister, just received, tells me, that she is back at Ivy Rock and feeling better than before she went to Oakland and all the others were well. Best love to dear Han, the boys & the girls. Yours affectionately E. H.
