0558

1884 August-September Galloway C. Morris Incoming letters 1994

and the terms", as you may think best. It looks more like a business transaction to my mind, than the previous offers we have had, but I leave the matter to your decision. I wrote to dear Mary on Monday last, and sent her a copy of Henry Howell's letter, but have not heard from her, since, in fact have not heard from her since Monday week. Had a note from Mary D. M., other end: on Thursday from Dry Creek, saying "they were all well. Charles Calhoun quite recovered except, not quite as strong." I have seen Effingham, twice, since his father & mother arrived, and he reported them all well. His father was in town at his office, yesterday. Had a Postal from Annie, who said, Israel was better, but she was very anxious he would stay quietly out of town for a while, but, it seems he did not heed her admonitions. Annie was very patient at the Dry Creek home. Mrs. Howell has written Mr. Buckler, fully, well. Cabin contents, etc. I enclose the letter. Glad you will be home to receive it. Hope to hear that Israel is better. Will have to delay sending you a copy of Henry Howell's letter, received last Friday evening, because I had some hopes, we might see you before this, and the letter would not reach you before you left Lake George, however, as you have not, yet, put in an appearance I will send a copy of the letter as far as relates to the Va lands keeping the original to show you if you should come here.

"Elizabeth. Aug 28th 1884

"My dear Emily. Your letter was duly "received. The course of Va land sales "does not run smoothly — in this case, the "story is — The question of Va lands in "connection with grazing &c, was "discussed by several gentlemen on,

Will you please write to Henry Howell 205 Fort Greenwich Avenue Chicago Ill. Elizabeth