1884 October - December Galloway C. Morris incoming letters MS 1994

Mr Newcomer's ability or knowledge But we will only trust that all will work out right now. My own personal feeling from reading all that you have written to me last summer about is just what I wrote to you then, that unless some other papers can be found we have no title at all to the property and that the law would give it to William Coale's heirs. And it seems to me very long to wait twenty years possession of it, for a title. But I suppose the fewer lawyers we have to put their fingers in the better and as Mr Gwinn has commenced he will have to complete it.

I am writing very hurriedly so please make due allowance. I am sending to you by the boat to day two cases of canned goods which I hope you will accept with much love and very best wishes for A Happy Christmas from the Ivy Neck family to Han the boys and your own self. The case of tomatoes you will find to contain some cans of health peaches. The weather has changed so suddenly that I fear navigation may close and hope that they may get through safely before it does.

With fond love to one and all

Your loving sister

Mary Co Murray

I do feel very much troubled about Concin and wish I could help her.
