0603

1885 January - February Galloway C. Morris incoming letters 1994

SIDE TWO

neighbourhood, have very good shooting. Now every thing is covered with snow and the sky looks as if we might have more. Yesterday the atmosphere was so fine (in the afternoon) that Rob suggested that I should go in the sleigh with him as far as Tulip Hill, and I did so, it is the first time I have been further than Deedie's since I returned from Baltimore. I enjoyed it exceedingly, and feel better for it. The sleighing was very smooth and good, there was no wind and the atmosphere just cold enough to make wraps comfortable. In the evening Charlie took two of the girls to The Swamp, where the sleighing was perfect they said. At Cedar Park they were joined by Willie with some of the family from there, in their sleigh, so they had company. In the afternoon I stopped at Tulip Hill and paid a visit to Mrs Burwell while Rob got the mail. It is the first time I have been to see them. There has been really no time when the weather has been such that I could ride in an open vehicle, that the roads have been fit, or else the horses were in use. but yesterday all things united. The girls had been to Church in the morning, I did not try that, as the ride was longer and the air sharp, and no certainty of what the sleighing would be. Harry is again away from home, but hopes this will be his last trip for some time. He went to Baltimore on Monday so as to attend The Farmers Convention that met there on Tuesday and Wednesday, some of the addresses promised to be interesting and instructive. Harry had some insurance business afterwards to attend to, so that he will not return until tomorrow. I suppose