SANDYVILLE

Impressive Communion Services were held at Sandy Mount last Sunday morning. In the afternoon an inspiring and enthusiastic Suday School Rally of Woolery's district was held at the church.

A large crowd was present from the different Sunday Schools.

Mr. Frank Magee led the song service followed by prayer by Rev. Wm. L. Seabrook, of Westminster, after which Mr. George Yeiser, County president, of the S. S. Association, made introductory remarks, and spoke of the importance of the work in his enthusiastic and earnest manner.

Mr. George Mather who is also giving much time to this work gave a chart talk which was very interesting and helpful. He urged every church member to be a member of the Sunday school. He also explained the different departmental work Miss Yeiser gave a fine talk on Cradle Roll work and urged every school in the district to have this department, as many times as possible as it brought parents into the school and church. Rev. Hetrick, of Westminster, gave an earnest and helpful address on adult Bible classes.

It was a strong, forceful address on the importance of older people attending Sunday school especially men as they seemed to be in the minority in attendance as well as in church work. Said men seemed to be interested in every thing else more than church and religion. One reason the great war is existing is that we need more christianity and Bible study. He spoke of many adult classes being started with a few members and how large they grow and how helpful they are.

Children's Service will be held at Sandy Mount Sunday morning, June 10, at 10.30 o'clock. If inclement it will be held at night.

LETTER FROM THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

To the Board of Education of Carroll County, Westminster, Maryland,

Gentlemen:—

The Board of County Commissioners of Carroll County, Maryland, acknowledge the receipt of your budget of expenses which you allege are required for the ensuing school year, amounting to $248,390.00.

We cannot consent to levy for this amzing amount of money for your Board; to add this amount to our levy would make the tax rate for all purposes nearly $2.00 on every $100 of valuation, and we cannot consent to impose such a large and, we believe, unnecessary burden upon our taxpayers at this time, when the price of building materials and the cost of mechanics and labor are excessive. when the people are greatly suffering from the high cost of living and when war taxes of all kinds will impose a heavy burden upon them.

For the year ending July 1, 1916 the School Board received from the County $67,000.00 and for the year ending July 1, 1917, your Board received from the County $88,000.00, and at 40 cents on the $100.00 your Board will receive for the ensuing year the estimated amount of $92,000.00.

A short time ago we notified you that we would not levy over 40 cents for your Board for the ensuing year and suggested that you govern yourselves accordingly in making up your budget, and we see no good reason to change our mind now, hence we repeat that for the ensuing year we will levy 40 cents on each $100.00 of valuation for your Board and no more.

You will have to arrange your expenditures accordingly.

Yours truly,
JACOB N. DEHOFF,
JOHN W. MYERS,
BENJAMIN F. STANSBURY,
County Commissioners of Carroll County.

Attest:- Martin D. Hess, Clerk.

CARROLL TO BE REPRESENTED IN THE NAVY

Carroll County will be called upon to contribute 52 young men in the Navy's new campaign for recruits from Maryland.

The State, as a whole, will be called upon to give 2,000 men as its share of the additional 63,000 necessary to bring up the strength of the Navy to 150,000 in accordance with the bill recently passed by Congress.

The Navy recruiting authorities at Baltimore under the direction of Lieutenant F. L. Wilson, Officer in Charge of the Maryland District, are mapping out details for the new campaign, and each of the 23 counties of the State has been assigned a definite quota. The apportionment is made on the population basis of eacn county.

Propaganda designed to set forth the advantages of the Navy in war time as well as in peace, has been prepared for circulation throughout the State, and patriotic citizens and organizations in each county will be asked to assist in the campaign.

Marylnd has already shown its preference for the Navy, being the only state in the Eastern Naval Division to raise its last quota of 800 recruits in the time prescribed by the Bureau of Navigation.

The salary rates and opportunities for promotion are especially attractive in the Naval sevice, and the Navy Department, a short while ago, waived the length-of-service requirements, thus permitting the enlisted men to be advanced in their ratings as soon as they attain the necessary qualifications.

Minors applying for enlistment—the age limits are between 17 and 35 years—must obtain the written consent of their parents, or legal guardian. Forms for this purpose can be procured from the postmasters of the various cities and towns of the State.

Full particulars of Navy enlistment can be obtained from the nearest postmaster; directly from the Navy Recruiting Station, Calvert and Lexington Streets, Baltimore, or from the Navy Recruiting Sub-stations at Cumberland and Hagerstown.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

Community memorial services will be held next Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock sharp, at Trinity Lutheran Church, Deer Park road, when an appropriate sermon will be preached by the pastor, Rev. W. L. Seabrook. The services will be under the auspices of members of the Grand Army of the Republic and of Washington Camp No. 68, Patriotic Order Sons of America, and all members of both organitions are earnestly requested to be present. Those who attend are requested to bring flowers, that after the service floral tributes and flags may be placed upon the graves of veterans in the cemetery adjoining the church and at Deer Park Church, Smallwood.

The married man would of course volunteer for the army if he were single, and when the single man marries he'll never hide behind his wife's petticoats.

The fact that a man can spend $5.00 for a new silk flag and holder for the same, does not prove that he could sacrifice $3.50 worth of interest money to buy one of the Liberty bonds.

GOOD PROFIT IN PORK PRODUCTION

CAREFUL FEEDING AND MANAGEMENT URGED BY COUNTY DEMONSTRATION AGENTS.

FARM BOYS INTERESTED

Agricultural Club Members Learn How To Properly Feed the Sow and Her Litter.

College Park, Md., April 19.—The importance of pork production is being urged by county demonstration agents. Particularly, in the boys' agricultural clubs great interest is being aroused and a large number of members are enrolling in profitable pig growing contests. These youngsters are busy discussing the instructions furnished their county agents by Dr. S. S. Buckley, specialist in livestock work for the Maryland Agricultural Extension Service. Dr. Buckley says, regarding the feeding of young pigs:

"If the sow has had proper feed and care she will have plenty of milk for her pigs, and the pigs will take just about all she can supply. But the pigs are getting older and larger day by day, and require more feed. Finally the pigs will notice that the feed which is given to the sow tastes good, and they will begin to eat a little from the trough. You should prepare ahead for this time, by making a partition in the pen with the bottom raised high enough from the floor to let the pigs get under, and strong enough to keep the sow on her side of the pen. In the part prepared for the pigs place a small trough. You then are ready to feed the pigs some special feed—a side dish. Skim milk or thin slop made with middlings or bran, a soup made by boiling corn, peas or beans and thinned down with water, or in fact, any grains that contain no hard hulls or indigestible portions will satisfy and benefit the pigs. Never feed it sour.

"Keep the trough and pen clean, and always have enough straw or other litter for a warm bed. As the pigs get older and require more feed, give it to them. Never give them more than they will clean up. If you do—remove it at once—wash the trough and feed a little less next feeding time. Don't get them fat, sleepy and lazy—but feed them to make growth—aim to make them longer and broader and in good condition, but not fat. When the pigs look thin both front and rear, but fat around the middle, you know your method of feeding is wrong. Such pigs need more peas, beans, alfalfa, clover and less corn, whether this corn is actually fed to them or whether they find it. Give them a chance to graze and get exercise, and see to it that they take it.

WHY QUARANTINE?

College Park, April 19.—In purchasing livestock from outside his community the Maryland farmer is urged to prevent any possibility of disease contagion by quarantining his stock. In a statement issued by the Maryland Agricultural Experiment Station the following suggestions are made:

"In this age when there is so much danger of carrying disease to healthy livestock through new purchases we would suggest that importers of livestock establish their own quarantine. This can be done with very little expense and be very effective without making a great deal of extra labor. A yard with an open shed, Southern exposure, being all that is necessary, as here new livestock can be confined for a period of time. Twenty or thirty days is sufficient to satisfy the owner that they are carrying no disease.

"This we believe is the season for the largest importations of the various species of livestock, and while this stock may come from good sanitary quarters and arrive in an excellent condition, still with the amount of shipping there is being done we can not be certain that the animals have not come in contact with infected quarters en route.

"To guard against this spreading of disease and infection of local stock, we would advise every importer, whether the distance be short or great, to prepare his quarantine quarters, where new stock may be kept isolated from stock already on the place for three to four weeks, thus giving any infection they may be carrying an opportunity to develop without danger to acclimated stock.

"If one man must care for both the stock on the place and that quarantined, he should care for the stock belonging to the place first and afterward the quarantined lot and thus avoid going directly from the quarantined lot to the cattle already on the place. This gives nature's sunlight with her strong disinfection power an opportunity to lessen the danger of carrying infection and by thus aiding nature in the prevention of the spread of disease you will also be reducing your own troubles along that line to a minimum.

"Specific suggestions for individual needs will gladly be made by calling at the Maryland Agricultural Experiment Station, or an inquiry by letter will receive prompt attention."

After banging up and down the crowded roads Sundays in a recklessly driven automobile, narrowly escaping accident a dozen times, many men will walk up to the conscription desk to register their names with fear and trembling.

There are 435 Congressional districts, and hence 435 different opinions as to where those 32 army camps should be located.
