SIDE TWO

was the arrangement. I suppose we shall before long hear something from Jackie Wallis about the Title. Now about Uncle Stephens estate or rather the property at Third and Pear Street, the figures that you give in this letter are very different from those in your letter of January 8th. In it you give me a copy of Uncle Wistars letter to you, and say that the property is worth not more than 47,500. or less than 40,000 and at this last price you would take it. Now it seems to me that the present idea of 32,500 is a very great reduction for two months especially as you also mention in the letter of Jan 8th what the rental is, and that the Nett returns from it are 3000 Dollars, thus giving an interest at your present offer of nearly ten per cent. Now it seems to me that Uncle Wistar as Trustee has no right to accept 35,000 from the heirs until he has tried to get more from those out side of the family. however the majority of the family have given him permission to do so, therefore my views are of no account. But dollars and cents are of more account to me than to any of the rest of you, and far outweigh any feeling of sentiment I think ~~[illegible]~~ in connection with a store that has been all altered! I suppose as you talk of an extended Western trip, that Han must be better decidedly than she was last year to be able to spare you. ~~[illegible]~~ When you go if you see General and Mrs Crooke which I presume you will, you must introduce yourself as my brother, or if you
