and the boys. Cousin Carolyn well. Mary writes he is doing very well. Emily

My dear Galley,

Some of them have been ailing, but are improving, but are not entitled, yet, I expect to be at home for Christmas. I have not decided for the future, will write you fully. Love to all. See Co: Vista Rosa as Grand Jury Tuesday. Letter Nov 14 1884.

Believing it is right you should have all the information I receive, I will copy for you a letter from Harry McMurray, that I have just received.

"Joy Neck, July 26th 1884.

"My dear Cousin Emily

"I have just seen Dr "Murray about Roller. He made inquiry "from a large number of persons about "him, all agree that he is a sharp "business man, and most of them, that "that he has a very keen eye to his own "interests, regardless of the interests of "others. One Cousin of his, who is now a "Carpenter at Rawley Springs, a few years "since, was worth $70,000, out of which "he was cheated by Roller, now, has "nothing. He has large interests in Texas,
