UNION MILLS

At the call of Calvin E. Bankert, local chairman, a number of the representative men of this locality came together at the Union Mills Savings Bank, on the evening of the 26th inst., and organized an aggressive campaign for the raising of $1650 the share of Myers towards the total sum of $2900 apportioned to Carroll county for the Red Cross War Fund. A letter prepared by the Rev. S. C. Hoover, was read and unanimously approved, and a copy of it will be sent to every family in the district. Then will follow the canvassers, two to every school house district, to solicit subscriptions. We trust that the response of our people may be generous, for no true American was ever confronted with a more worthy cause and he should give cheerfully and to the fullest extent of his ability. From those present at the meeting the following subscriptions were received:

John F. Maus	$25.00
Joseph Cookson	$25.00
Bernard F. Shriver	$25.00

An illustrated lecture on the story of the flag was given on the evening of the 24th inst., in the I. O. M. hall by Rev. S. C. Hoover, pastor of St. Mary's Reformed church, Silver Run. The reverend gentleman is Scout Master of Troop No. 1, boy scouts of Silver Run, and the lecture was given to assist in raising the $25 that the troop has subscribed towards the Myers district unit of the Red Cross Society. There was a good attendance and about $22 were received from admission. The lecture was an excellent one. During the evening "The Star Spangled Banner" and other patriotic airs were sung. Prof. John Seitz, a summer boarder at Mr. John W. Flickinger's, presided at the organ, and Mrs. Seitz led the singing.

Mr. Bernard W. Ecker, farm overseer for the B. F. Shriver Co., was aroused from his slumbers about 10 o'clock last Monday night by an unusual racket at the stable on his premises. An investigation developed that one of the horses had slipped his halter and proceeded to take a look about the barn. In his travels he wondered through the open doors of the threshing floor and into a hay loft. There he tumbled headlong into and broke through an open rack and rolled over the manger to the stable below. Two mules occupied the stable and this sudden and unexpected nocturnal visitor so startled them that they both tore loose from their moorings and one of them jumped to freedom over the lower half of the double stable door. The horse that made the sudden decent from the second to the first floor, and caused all the trouble, was only slightly injured.

WINTER MILK PRICE

Carroll County Dairymen Will Meet

The Committees on milk prices for this fall were called to Baltimore on July 27, 1917. There it was decided that each county should hold a big meeting so that the men that you appointed on this committee could tell what was decided upon at the Baltimore meeting.

On August 11, 1917, at two o'clock in the High School building at Westminster, the dairymen large and small, of Carroll County will meet and at this meeting the price of milk for the winter will be decided upon. Every dairyman, whether he is milking one cow or thirty, shipping milk to Baltimore, making butter, or selling to a creamery, knows that when pasture goes this fall the cow must go also if he does not get a profit for her product. With dairy feed about double in price and with $8 corn in October there is not one dairyman in Carroll County who can produce four percent milk for less than forty cents a gallon wholesale this fall and winter.

Now Brother Dairyman, we will have the great pleasure of hearing what President Harry, of the Maryland Milk Producers' Association has for us, also I. W. Hepps and W. H Wheeler. Do not fail to be present on this great afternoon, for your own interests and to show our brother dairymen of Harford County that we are wide-awake.

Meeting promptly at two o'clock.

R. Smith Snader,
Vice-President State Asso.
James W. Beacham Jr.
