Dear Madam

Please preserve "the statement I sent you in my last letter, as "it will show, exactly, what was included "in that settlement. The Judge decided "the Union Springs case against us, upon "the ground that the claimants had had "adverse, uninterrupted possession long enough "to give them a title. I am having the record "copied I intend to take an Appeal to our "Court of Appeals - I will have to conduct "two cases in West Virginia yet, & the litigation "will then be all over. It has been protracted and "troublesome - Will communicate further as soon "as I get taxes straitened up in Augusta Co

Very respectfully your's. John E. Roller.
