SIDE TWO

ample in signing it. The other paper I have put all the information on that I could give, and have desired Harry to write any thing more that may be needed, but I do not know that he will have the opportunity to do so. He and Rob are very busy to day shipping a lot of canned goods to various parties. I am very glad to hear of Cousin Emily's being with you and hope she is well. Some of the family here still have bad colds, but no one is laid up with them. I am trying to get the house cleaning finished but find it difficult work especially so as I am minus one servant, - a waiter What do you think of the election, are we likely to have any serious difficulties? Please give much love to all of your circle, and also to Israel and Cheston when you see them.

Your loving sister
