My dear Uncle Galley

I have had a talk with Uncle James about your mare & after a thorough examination of her foot he said the injury was there & that she may be well enoughto drive for a few days or weeks at a time but will never perfectly recover.

He advises putting her back to her father "Pilot" & says some of the best horses he has ever known (Black Hawk) were bred that way.

If you would rather not do that there are two others here that are very good.

One is by Uncle James' old horse
