ANNEXATION BILL EXTREMELY UNFAIR

THE PRESTON-FIELD FORCE BILL, which is designed to annex about half the people and wealth of Baltimore County to the City, IS SO UNFAIR THAT ITS SPONSORS DARE NOT SUBMIT IT TO THE PEOPLE TO BE AFFECTED BY THE CHANGE. The Constitution of Maryland declares that there must be a referendum, or vote of the people in such cases, but the annexationists claim, in effect, that the Constitution is unconstitutio al.

In 1888 the city proposed a fair annexation bill, the Legislature passed it and THE NORTHERN AND WESTERN SUBURBS voted to go into the city. Most of them have been regretting it ever since, BUT IF THEY HAVE BEEN BURNT BY A FAIR BILL, WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO THE PEOPLE OF THE PROPOSED NEW ANNEX UNDER A BILL WHICH ITS FRAMERS REFUSE TO SUBMIT TO THEM, SAYING "A REFERENDUM MEANS NO ANNEXATION."

Next week we will point out some of the many iniquitous provisions of this bill, which the Democratic Convention refused to indorse, but which the Republican party indorsed with emphasis.

THE BALTIMORE COUNTY NON-PARTISAN CITIZENS' PROTECTIVE COMMITTEE.

Fear that poison of disease germs may have been placed in the reservoir supplying water to the army post at Leavenworth, Kas., is said to be respondsible for an order by Col. William A. Shunley commandant at the fort, that all water must be boiled before being used. Officers in the post laboratory made an analysis of water taken from the reservoir that supplies both the army post and the city of Leavenworth, and it is said that it was on their recommendation that the order to boil water was issued. A man crawling through the underbrush near the reservoir recently was fired on by a sentry guarding the water supply, but he escaped.

Jeremiah Rowe, of Waynesboro, was instantly killed by a passenger train on the Western Maryland railway, Saturday afternoon. Mr. Rowe was 48 years old and had been employed as a boiler maker for 27 years. Mr. Rowe's death is the third in his family by violence. His brother-in-law, was killed at a street crossing here 10 years ago by a Western Maryland train and his daughter was killed while coasting down a hill five years ago.

MEANING ME?

By
Abbie Farwell Brown
Of The Vigilantes

"Waste nothing! Save. Scrimp, pinch, for the common good!" Meaning me? Why me?

You Rich man, who earned a lot of money, (fairly or not)—it is hard lines that you may not do with it as you please now; isn't it? You don't like to be told how little you ought to eat, and how much you ought to save, when you can "afford" to have what you want when you want it. Do you?

But don't you see, Sir. This war's an upsetting thing. Everything's changed. This isn't the same world we were living in three years ago. We have walked into a new problem. Money has lost its comparative value for a bit. On crude necessities hang the hopes of nations; beef, flour, gasoline stuff of Life and Victory—are growing scarcer all the time. You may be "rich" but you've no more right to be careless of the world's food than has your poorest clerk. You and he are equally dependent on the issues of this war. You are in the same lifeboat, and rations are scarce. You must save and pull together. The "bit" you are called to do for your country may be a bit of self—denial. Well, the brave boys are fighting for you and yours at the front. You've got to hoard up the supplies at home to keep them strong and winning. We've got to send life to our suffering Allies. The world is starving, do you see? No matter how swell a chef you have, he must not load your table with goodies. It isn't decent. Save. scrimp, pinch for the common larder. Use your surplus to buy Liberty Bonds.

"No more joy-riding! Save the gasoline!" Meaning me? Why me?

You Poor Man, who saved and scrimped and pinched to buy a motor car for self and family—It's hard lines that you can't do as you please with it now; isn't it? What's been the use of respectable thrift anyhow, if you can't have the fun of it now?

Fun! Don't you see, Man? We're up against it hard. It's life itself we have to worry about, not mere comforts or luxuries. Can't you do without a few joy-rides when Europe has lost all joy? The supply of gasoline is millions of gallons short for the demands of airplanes, embulances, trucks, tanks and countless machines that are fighting your cause in this war. There is no gasolene at all, they say, to be had for new cars in England. Old cars are limited to about seven gallons a month. What would happen to self and familiy if our army should run seriously short of petrol? This may be if Americans keep on wiith extravagant joy-riding. Death-riding it will be. Every gallon of gasoline counts. Save it, for Victory! Put the cash you were going tospend into Liberty Bonds. You'll be glad later on.

We used gaily to think that there was plenty enough of everything in the good old world, if you had the price. Now we know better. Price is not everything when there isn't stuff to buy. We've got to save—everything. And finance the State.

If you are not careful with what you have, America may be lost. You can't be selfish now. Meaning you, meaning every one of us!

J. E. Ridenour, Hagerstown, a Western Maryland Railway brakeman, was knocked from the top of a box car of an east-bound freight train as it was passing through Chambersburg Saturday and his head badly cut. While leaning over the side of the car to learn the cause of a rattling noise his head struck a board fence and he was hurled from the car.

The report from Rusisa that its railroads are likely to be all tied up with a strike, suggests that that country is now getting all the advantages of free government.

The German plotters communications are about like the villain's stage whispers—audible up in the top gallery.

After kicking on the cost of getting goods from the producers to the consumer, most peolpe proceed to order groceries on credit with the charge for interests and bad debts added to the price.

Some of the people who put through the immigration exclusion law, which helps make labor scarce and costly, are now growling because all prices are high.
