The new project went into effect last Monday morning. Mr. David Brown and Mr. James Frederick are delivering the pupils to Manchester in their automobiles for the present until other arrangements can be made. The plan seems to be favorable and we hope it will be a success the entire school year.

MANCHESTER

In obedience to the call of the President and the Governor of the state a Liberty Loan service was held in Trinity Reformed church on Sunday evening that was largely attended. After an anthem by the choir the Rev. F. H. Blatt presided during the opening service and then introduced Guy W. Steele, Esq., who presented the subject in all its phases with the whys and wherefores that the United States is so prominent in this great world war, showing that it was only after Germany had interfered with our commerce, killed our citizens and played their deception to intolerance, that the congress declared war, and at once prepared to back up their declaration by raising an army and equipping the same for the cause of Liberty. To do this was expensive and to carry it on to success the government will need money; asking all to come to its aid by buying Bonds which he clearly explained, with the assurance that it is a safe investment and will aid in bringing about that peace that all will be glad to enjoy. Prof. Loats gave a trombonoe solo. Rev. D. R. Wagner was introduced who fully indorsed the sayings of Mr. Steele and giving assurance that he is in full accord with the move for the raising of the amount of the Loan so that the army and navy may be fully equipped to do their part in bringing about a lasting peace to the nations of the world. Another anthem and the singing of "America" by the audience was followed by the benediction.

The sale of Mr. Clinton Barnhart on Saturday brought out a large crowd of people and the streets about the square were packed with teams and autos. NAVY ITEMS

Navy recruiting has shown a substantial increase in the Maryland district during the past ten days.

As had been anticipated, the big concert rally at the Fifth Regiment Armory in Baltimore by the Navy Band of the Great Lakes Training Station, under the leadership of John Philip Sousa, stimulated enlistments, the effect of the rally bing shown through the entire State.

Lieut. Commander John Grady, Recruiting Inspector of the Eastern Division, and Lieut. M. A. Leahy, Officer-in Charge of the Maryland district are both very well pleased with the increase. They are hopeful that the good showing will be maintained until the full complement of the Navy has been attained.

Applicants from the various counties of the State can expedite their enlistments by taking with them to the recruiting station in Baltimore a certificate of the date of their birth, signed by either their father or mother, or by the clergyman officiating at their baptism. It is absolutely necessary that all applicants prove the date of their birth.

Full particulars of Navy enlistments can be obtained from the nearest postmaster; directly from the Navy Recruiting Station, Calvert and Lexington Streets, Baltimore, or from the Navy Recruiting Sub-Stations at Cumberland and Hagerstown.

Some men can't buy even a $50 Liberty bond, as they need the money to sit in at the poker game.

The women who complain about the increased use of tobacco in public places might be presented with one of the soldier's gas helmets.

There are some persons who think that food production can be increased by planting the same old acres in the same old way.

All these revelations make one biterly regretful that Spy von Bernstorff got out of this country without acquiring a very deep and ineradicable dent from the toe of Uncle Sam's boot.

Some of these people who look so downcast haven't sent a boy to the war, but are merely grouchy because they were asked to have a wheatless day.

Those who could buy Liberty bonds but don't can no doubt prevent their friends from finding it out by sneaking home on the back streets after dark.
