SIDE ONE

the fixing of the fruit - they have just announced to me that two boxes of peaches are here ready for paring - and as they are very wet I must help to attend to them as soon as possible. Our heath peaches have been a failure this year which is as you know a very serious loss to us - They could only ship eight boxes - and those not what they should be. The remainder were brought to me sixteen boxes - and most of those only fit for the hogs - I suppose I got about two bushels that I could manage to use. The girls each desire me to give a great deal of love to you and to their Aunt Han - they each speak frequently of what a delightful time they had at Lake George - and Sallie and Nannie go away from home I thought about doing as I would be done by, and writing to ask if you would let them pay you a visit but there was no time to wait for a reply as Charley would only consent to be away for the time he was told he could not go to the canning house - a period of eight days. I presume they expect to come home from Oakland tomorrow -

He was very much ~~bt~~ better than when he left here - our anxiety was caused principally by not knowing what was the matter for some time with him.

Again let me assure you with fondest love to both you and Han how grateful
