1887 Galloway C. Morris incoming letters MS 1994

SIDE TWO

I suppose from the tenor of the letter that you are desirous of selling the store but I cannot understand why Mr King should say that property in that neighbourhood has depreciated in value since you bought the store - There certainly is no evidence of any thing of the kind, from the appearance I in walking up either Sharp or Lombard Street. Harry & I were both struck with the character of improvements that have been made - and the thriving appearance. I hope you may have discovered that the letter which I presume you intended to send to me was not sent, and that I may receive it tomorrow. Harry has heard nothing yet from Mr Book about the lumber in Va. or from Roller either. We have had no letters from the girls for two or three nights but suppose they are well, and from their accounts when we last heard were certainly enjoying themselves. There has been next to no duck shooting as yet or I would beg you to come down, not but what we would be glad to see you at any time, but I know that the shooting would be a pleasure to you. I hope you know
