n.d. Galloway C. Morris Incoming Letters (Emily Hollingsworth) 1994

SIDE ONE

Tuesday. May 16th

Dear Gally.

From the notice on your door, find you will be back to-morrow (Wednesday) so copy for you what your sister says in her letter to Polly rec'd to-day. "Father seems pretty comfortable "still, but feels anxious and worried "about making any plans for his "movements. It seems to me, that "the best way will be for your Uncle "Gally to come at whatever time is "most convenient to himself & then, "take Father home with him. Some-"times he talks of going on, so as to "reach Phila^da before you leave, and "then of paping you a meeting you in "Baltimore, but I think if your Uncle "can come for him, that will be best. "But if he insists upon going, we can, "of course, let him go to Annapolis "when the buggy goes for you, girls. I will "not send the Coupon until Wednesday
