Willys KNIGHT

Sleeve-Valve Motor

The Willys-Knight motor is the paradox of the entire automobile industry.

While ordinary types of motors lose their original effectiveness with use—the Willys-Knight gains in power, flexibility and smoothness

This is not an engineering theory—but a proved fact.

More than 20,000 owners who are using Willys-Knight cars will be glad to tell you so—and tell you so enthusiastically. Let us put you in touch with a few of them.

Carbon, which is responsible for the undoing of ordinary motors, is utilized beneficially by the sleeve-valve Willys-Knight motor.

While other motors are periodically incapacitated because they must have valves ground and carbon removed the Willys-Knight motor improves with use and is sustained at top efficiency because carbon is its reconstructing life.

Let us show you the Willys-Knights—Four and Eight—and demonstrate them.

WILL Be pleased to see you at Auto Show.

The State College of Agriculture has arranged Farmers' Institutes for every working day between January 14 and March 1. Carroll county gets four days as follows: Union Bridge, Monday, January 21; Westminster Tuesday, January 22; Hampstead, Wednesday, January 23; Sykesville, Thursday, January 24. While four days are not many for the farmers of a whole country to go to school yet this county is being pretty well treated. Mount Airy had a two day institute in November. Mr. Patterson spoke at Mount Airy and Union Bridge during the summer, President Woods and others appeared at Taneytown during the fair, and specialists from the College speak before the granges and farmers clubs every month or two.

Live Stock, Dairying, Soils and Crops, Poultry, and Home Economics will be discussed at these meetings by specialists from the Agricultural College with the exceptions of dairying. Mr. D. G. Harry, President of the State Dairymens' Association will represent that. Having the extension work of a state in charge of persons directly responsible to the State and Government authorities seems to be a move in the right direction, for it is being done by practically every state. In the old Farmers' Institutes the speakers were individuals who had attained a certain amount of notoriety in some line and were responsible only to their own judgment and honesty which sometimes becomes elastic under the fire of oratory methods of doing things advocated as there were institutes in a county. Specialists are persons who have had all the fundamental training of a college course and sufficient experience afterward to make them thoroughly familiar with the practical side of their special branch. They are responsible to the authorities under whom they are working for what they advocate which means that they advise only methods that have proven best under the trials of the Experiment Stations and the practice of the best farmers. Experiment Stations are not quick to recommend new things as is commonly supposed. For instance no variety of seed is ever generally recommended until its has proven its merits by at least five years test. Specialists are the connecting link between the county agent and the College. No one person today can be thoroughly posted on all the branches of farming and experts or specialists are maintained in every state to aid the county agents. While Maryland has not the resources and hence the salaries of some states and corporations the Marymand specialists are highly regarded by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and by the authorities of the neighboring states.

CANTATA REPEATED

An interesting and highly creditable service to all who participated, was held at the Carroll Hall, by the congregation of the Church of God on Sunday night last.

It was a repetition of their Christmas Service, and was repeated at the request of a number of persons who were unable to hear it at Christmas. The exercises consisted of a number of patriotic and religious tableaux, and a Cantata, "The Coming of the King," in oriental costumes.

The parts had been thoroughly learned, and there was no need of a prompter, "grown ups" and children all showing the careful study and attention they had given their parts.

Throughout the long program and the intermissions required for the changing of the stage setting, the large audience which packed the room waited quietly and reverently. Considering the back of space on the stage and the inexperience of most of those taking part, the entertainment was one of the best of its kind ever given here.

Care had been given to every detail of scenery and costume possible and one and all deserve praise for the conscientious study they had given their parts which was evident in the manner in which they were carried out. Rev Gonso, the pastor, is doing a good work in Westminster, and deserves all the help which can be given him and his faithful congregation.

Mrs. Mary Kump, an aged inmate of the County Home, died on Sunday night from the infirmities of age, aged about 85 years. She had made her home there a number of years, coming from Taneytown district. She leaves one brother, who is also advanced in years. Her funeral took place at the Home on Tuesday morning, Mr. Sarrall, of the Westminster Theological Seminary, conducting the services. James M. Stoner, was the funeral director.

Mr. J. Brooke Fink, of Yokaoma, and little daughter are visiting Mr. Fink's father, Mr. Charles E. Fink, East Main street, this city.

It is mighty easy to figure out that you can afford a car after partaking of the sticky refreshments at the automobile shows.

MRS. N. H. Malehorn

Mrs. Nettie Hunt Malehorn, widow of the late John G. Malehorn, and daughter of Alverta and the late Thos. J. Hunt, died Monday night at the Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore, after a short illness aged 36 years.

She formerly resided in Hampstead, this county, where she was born and spent her early life.

She was of a most cheerful disposition and had many friends, which was attested by many beautiful floral designs and many friends who attended her funeral.

Besides her mother she is survived by one small son, Guy, and sister, Mrs. Charles Frederick, of Hazelton, Pa., and one brother, A Thomas Hunt, of Hampstead.

The funeral service, conducted by Rev. Mr. Johnson, of the First M. E. Church, was held Wednesday evening at her late residence, 311 East North avenue, Baltimore and the remains were brought to Hampstead yesterday morning to the funeral parlors of Messrs. C. V. Tipton and Son, from where further service was held at two o'clock and the interment was made in the Hampstead Cemetery. The service at the grave was conducted by Rev. D. M. Dibble.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. G. W. Houck, J. B. Wells, John Hutchinson, William Gardner, Robert W. Sullivan, Everett Warehime, Arthur Nagle and Nathan Rote.

Messrs. C. V. Tipton & Son were the funeral directors.

J. COVER

The funeral of Mr. Jacob Cover, 83 years old, who died Monday night at his home, in Baltimore, from heart trouble took place this morning from his late home. Burial was made in Lorraine Cemetery, Baltimore.

..... MRS. S. K. YINGLING .....

Mrs. Norine Yingling, wife of Samuel K. Yingling, of this city, died at her home on East Green street, Saturday morning at 8 o'clock, aged 64 years and 7 months. She is survived by her husband, one son and three daughters. Mrs. Roger Brooks, West Point, Va.; Mrs. Jesse Harmer, Clio, S. C.; Mrs. Roy Huntly, Popensville, Fla., and Samuel K. Yingling, of Philadelphia.

Funeral services in charge of Rev. E. T. Mowbray, were held at her late home Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and the interment wa smade in the Westminster Cemetery.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Slaughter, Meade Ohler, David Zimmerman, J. D. Mitchell, John Stem and Eugene Reese.

F. A. Sharrer & Son were the funeral directors.

J. B. LITTLE

Mr. John B. Little, the 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Pius Little, of John street, this city, a fireman on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, was killed early Sunday morning, 13th inst., in the railroad yards at Curtis Bay.

Mr. Little had been in the employ of the railroad company for five months, was getting along very nicely and was devoted to his work.

He was a young man of noble character, and his loving and cheerful disposition won for him a host of friends wherever he went. It may be truly said of him, "None knew him but to love him."

Besides his parents he is survivel by two brothers, Henry Edward Little and Joseph Stafford Little.

His body was brought to the home of his parents Sunday evening, and the funeral service conducted by Rev. Thomas E. McGuigan, was held Tuesday morning at ten o'clock in St. John's Catholic Church, this city, and the interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

The active pallbearers were. Messrs. Norman Boyle, Thomas Case, John Case, George Sinnott, John Leahy, George Shriner, Edward Eckenrode and C. Gloyd Diffendal.

The honorary pallbearers were members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. They were: Messrs, May, Wood, Gumpher, Stalman and Walters.

The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

Messrs. F. A. Sharrer & Son were the funeral directors.

MRS. J. BUSHMAN

Mrs. Rosie C. Buchman, wife of Mr. John A. Buchman, of Manchester, this county, died Monday, 14th inst., at the Mercy Hospital, Baltimore.

The funeral service was held yesterday morning at eight o'clock in St. John's Catholic Church, this city, and the interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

Four Maryland and nine Virginia officers ended their careers yesterday in the Blue and Gray Division, at Anniston, Ala., on account of physical disability. Among the Maryland officers was Captain John N. Weigle, of this city.

The gas works of the Consolidated Public Utilities Company were badly damaged Wednesday morning when the purifiers exploded. A large brick building was blown over, leaving only the foundation standing. The ruins took fire, but the blaze was extinguished. The loss is about $1,000. The explosion shook many of the houses in the neighborhood, frightening the occupants. About four hours after the gas works fire the contents in the home of Joseph Lavender, on Liberty street were damaged when a blaze started from a stove on the second floor.
