n.d. Galloway C. Morris Incoming Letters (Emily Hollingsworth) 1994

SIDE ONE

N. Jersey,
July 11th

My dear Friend

Your letter and the inclosed description of the Virginia Lands, I think the description is very clear, and calculated to excite an interest in the English parties, as their friend on this side of the Atlantic, said, they wanted the land for grazing purposes. We have had so many "nibbles", that we will not build too much upon what may come of this, but shall be glad & thankful, if it should result in a sale, as far, as I am concerned. You must have had a trying visit to Phila^da^, the weather so hot and the sad events of Annie & Wm Ellicott's deaths, occurring at the time. It is very, very sad for those orphan children, Howell has just come (5 P.M.) and as he will have you describe by his speech, so I send it to you for your perusal and will hand you letter to Andrew, to the Friends, who I think will be able to tell us if his claim is just, or not.

Very much obliged
