n.d. Galloway C. Morris Incoming letters (Emily Hollingsworth) 1994

SIDE ONE

she says, she has "no pain or any disease, only feels good-for-nothing". I found a letter from Roller, dated June 12th, awaiting me, here, including Bills for Taxes & Fees, Total amount $16 64/100ths, much less than I expected. I copy his letter for you on the other page. I intend to go to New Brunswick to-morrow afternoon, and from there, proceed to N. York to the Babcocks, where I suppose I shall stay until the 10th or 11th of July. I am afraid I shall thus miss you, but Alice & Louisa generally, leave home, about the middle of July and I must pay my visit before that time. I have written to Roller, to-day, & sent him check for the $16 64/100ths. So glad dear Hannah keeps pretty well, and hope for greater improvement. My best love to her & the boys. Cor: Caroline is feeble, but about the house, sends her love. I am so sorry not to see you, dear Gally, but truth, we shall meet before long. Hope Steam launch did arrive.

Your's truly & lovingly, Cor: Emily.
