0717

n.d. Galloway C. Morris incoming letters 1994

SIDE TWO

in that case I shall want if possible to go on to New York &c on Tuesday. We hope to see you Tuesday Morning. I cannot write any more now The boys have told you about our mails. If Israel had got a coupon ticket and sent by mail, it had better be enquired into or stop the use of it. Perhaps you could have it cancelled and send me a fresh one via the Steam boat.

Your loving sister
M. H. Murray

the end of another week as Harry expects to be in Baltimore at the meeting of the State Grange next week, of which he is Treasurer, and these meetings usually occupy all of his time. Harry is busy this morning entertaining Dr Fair, and therefore has not been able to write any thing about it himself. They have now gone in the buggy to Deedie's, Harry is not able to walk, and if he has any more business to talk about he must add it when he comes. He is evidently feeling the effect to day, of all he did yesterday and his limb is more stiff more inflamed and more swollen than yesterday, and he has headache also. Once more with fond love

Your affec sister
Mary H. Murray