n.d. Galloway C. Morris incoming letters 1994

SIDE TWO

and at reasonable cost.
It is better for us to remain in town even, when we can get them, than to incur the fatigue & expense of moving such a distance to be obliged to submit to discomfort & return worse than we should have been remaining here.—
Use your own judgment.
Now that you have an opportunity, see on the spot, & can see better than while here. ~~If Mr~~ Does Mrs Butler expect to take away any ~~thing~~ is now in the house for that she goes to? and if so will it stay ~~the~~ house.

Your loving father.
