0731

n.d. Galloway C. Morris incoming letters 1994

I am so sorry to trouble you so much. but I can not avoid it. If you can send me any comfort you need not come I have not the faintest hope of his recovery - indeed I never had - & feel as though I had deserted him - & am myself deserted. - I have written three letters to Isaac and destroyed them all because I could not bear to read them myself -

SMITHSONIAN