NAVY NOTES

Lieut. M. A. Leahy, Navy Recruiting Officer for the Maryland district, has been authorized by the Bureau of Navigation to enlist men in the Navy for the duration of the war only.

This enables the young men of the State to give their services to the Navy during the period of the war and to be allowed to return again to civil life as soon as peace is declared.

Since war was declared last Spring a great many young men have requested of Lieut. Leahy that they be allowed to go into the Navy for the war only, but until now all such requests had to be declined.

The new order of the Bureau of Navigation, should stimulate Navy recruiting and Lieut. Leahy expects to have no difficulty in filling the weekly quota allowed the Maryland district.

Nor does the new order prevent men of the draft age volunteering in the the Navy if they can procure from their local boards certification that they are not needed for the current quota of their local board.

Full particulars of Navy enlistments can be obtained from the nearest postmaster; directly from the Navy Recruiting Station, Calvert and Lexington Streets, Baltimore or from the Navy Recruiting Substations at Cumberland and Hagerstown.

WINDIE HEIGHTS

One of the most interesting dances of the season was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson, of near Gist, on Wednesday evening, January 16th. Although the roads were very icy, the guests began to arrive early and were received by Miss Welthie Gibson and sister, Mrs. Nolan Wilson. Soon all were happily gliding over the smooth surface to the music furnished by Mr. Jesse Duvall, of Woodbine, while the older ones were entertained with some beautiful selections rendered on the organ by Mrs. Gibson. At a late hour refreshments were served in abundance and all departed expressing themselves as being delighted with their evening's entertainment. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Nolan Wilson, Herbert Shipley, Alfred Linton, Jr., and Tivis Shipley; Mesdames William Gibson and Carrie Murphy; Misses Welthie Gibson, Lottie Barnes, Amelia McQuay, Ollie Poole, Estelle Wagner, Lillian Barnes, Helen Freyman, Hilda Haines, Bertie Wagner, Marie Lindsay, Flossie Hood, Ethel McQpay, Lillian Flohr, Mora Haines, Bertha Lindsay, Goldie Haines, Maggie Murphy, Eva Shipley, Dora Linton and Mary Shipley; Messrs. IN MEMORIAM

In sad, but loving remembrance of my dear aunt, M. Janie Arbaugh, who departed this life four years ago today, January 28, 1914.

In memory, I often see
The one I loved so dear;
Her vision grows so clear sometimes
I feel she must be near.

Her well-remembered footsteps
I listen for in vain,
And my eyes grow dim with watching,
And my heart is sad with pain.

I often sit and wonder
At what she would say,
If she only knew the changes,
That have happened since that day.

Oh, dearest, sweetest aunt,
Since you have passed away,
It seems not that its years ago
But only yesterday.

When'ere I speak your loving name
My eyes with tears are wet;
Dear aunt, how I loved you,
And love cannot forget.

The Father took you from me,
It was His holy will;
He left in my heart a vacancy
Which never can be filled.

But in my saddest moments
One happy thought holds sway;
We will meet again, dear aunt,
And be happy, some sweet day.

By her loving niece,
Mrs. Gussie J. Blizzard.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of Burton E. H. Hood.
My heart is sad and lonely,
My eyes with tears are dimmed.
A place is vacan tin our home,
Which never can be filled.

By his father.

How sadly we have counted the hours,
That measured these two lonely years,
Since we laid 'neath a mantle of flowers,
Our brother whom we loved so dear.

If we could speak thy gentle grace
Which far surpasses words,
These lines would be the sweetest,
That ever yet were heard.

By sisters, Sophronia and Bessie.

According to the bureau of labor statistics of the Department of Labor, in the year from November 15, 1916, to November 15, 1917, prices of food as a whole advanced 23 per cent. Potatoes is the only article that shows a decline in price. Corn meal advanced 87 per cent; bacon 62 per cent; pork chops, 48 per cent; beans, 39 per cent; salmon, 38 per cent; milk, 33 per cent; and lard 27 per cent. Food as a whole was 48 per cent higher on November 15, 1917, than on November 15, 1913, and 46 per cent higher than on November 15, 1914. During this fouryear period corn meal advanced 127 per cent; flour, 109 per cent; lard, 104 per cent; bacon 77 per cent; sugar 75 per cent; and potatoes, 72 per cent. No article declined in price.

Germany can continue the war indefinitely in spite of food shortage, as the people of wealth can get food even if some kinds of meat are $70.00 a pound, and the poor people don't have to eat.
