SIDE ONE

Wallbrook July 24th 1880

My dear Hamilton

It is a blessed thing to have any one you can address by a little so very pleasant. Your letter gave great pleasure to your grandmother, your Mother and myself. We are happy to know you have the prospect of a little respite from your toil, and hope you will enjoy greatly a visit home. We learn that your father is now shipping peaches. They ripen earlier this year than usual. He expects to come to Baltimore tomorrow Evening to attend a Temperance Meeting in is able to do so.

We shall be glad to hear from you at your leisure. Sha not heard of the injury to your ankle till you alluded to your lameness in your letter. Your Grandmother desires her love to you

Your loving grandfather
