Dear Mary [H Murray]

I have seen him well enough to answer your kind letter at the time ~~I received~~ it came, and now write in Harry's letter a line to say I am suffering so much I did not see Harry on Sunday to offer that beautiful prayer for the sick so that ask my dear H. R. you all to pray for patience under my sufferings ~~for~~ this painful life to dwell with Thee — I see no use in wanting to pray it till you are ready to die & rheumatisms don't kill but makes you suffer torments when so relieved as nothing. I have a very dear friend who is pretty much in the same state from paralysis but worse he can't speak his only daughter Minnie from who says it is so awful to see his efforts to talk & he may die at any moment in his own — So please use the prayer for sick "servants" & for "them" instead of for "me." He is on a my heart & pray for his lonely daughter — So Harry & I have can pray for both sufferers —
