1852-1854

and Mr. White regretted particularly that they did not see you, it was really too bad that you should have staid here so short a time, and been so long on the road, but some time you will know better. We were completely shut up for several days after you left, nobody came near us, Frank went off on Monday in the cars poor old Rattler floundering & plunging about at a great rate in the snow drifts. Mr & Mrs. White came on on Thursday in a sleigh & tandem I went home with them & had a grand time sleighing about, for several days. The roads now are perfectly dreadful. The Dobbins & Polly, who is spending a week there) came on yesterday & dined with us, Mr. & Mrs. White Lou Lee and Carrie Dorsey & Lizzie Durall, he had quite a large party but wanted gentlemen very much, Rose & Julia Morris are staying here. Have you had any more letters from America since you went back? Don't your conscience
