1874-1887 Sally Scott [Murray] [redacted]

Dec. 5th 1880.

My dear Sally

Thank you very much for your letter, received some days ago. The Dr. with Sally & Robert went up to Baltimore on Monday last, the two latter returning in the afternoon & the Dr. remaining with Dr Morris & Galloway until yesterday. I waited to write to you until he came home as you asked me to tell you all about them all, and I could do so better after his return. The reason why dear Jane was buried at Woodlawn Park was that Dr Murray had a great or be a great comfort to her, Thank you for telling me of Sally Carroll, I always have been very fond of her, & she has always been very sweet & affectionate to me, do give my love to Lie, & to the Thomas girls when you see them,

dear Sally I am truly sorry you should suffer so much with this obstinate rheumatism, & thank you so much for taking the trouble to write to me such lovely letters.

We are all glad to hear of Kate's engagement, & hope she may be very happy. Lizzie Murray has not come yet, they expected her yesterday & now think she may come on Wednesday. I am so glad she will be with Molly this winter, Molly seems so depressed
