1874-1887 Sally Scott [Minnie]

-justice to any removal after her death, & Galloway had a lot there - The services were at the house. The nephews, & Grandsons were the Pall bearers - Dr. Newton her Pastor in Philadelphia officiated, Dr Morris has been wonderfully calm, & peaceful ever since, tho all dreaded so much the effect upon him but the Dr says he continues to be so. He stays for the present with Galloway who is far from well, and really requires some one there. He owned he dread fully lonely by himself, & Dr Morris is ~~other~~ there, he has some one else to take care of, & to think for, all the time, & the family all seem to dread the effect of the associations on Phil. upon his nervous temperament. Dear little Laule is still living - they thought yesterday morning he was dying - but we heard to day he rallied again, & was still alive - poor Mary! she has had a terribly trying time this summer, & looks wretchedly -

I am truly thankful to hear that Mr Rivinus is better, I heard the day before yesterday from Fanny Murray, who was there then, that he was much more comfortable, & first now, from your card yesterday, that the worst is over. I have thought a great deal of dear Emily, & sympathized very truly with her, Mr Starkie must indeed
