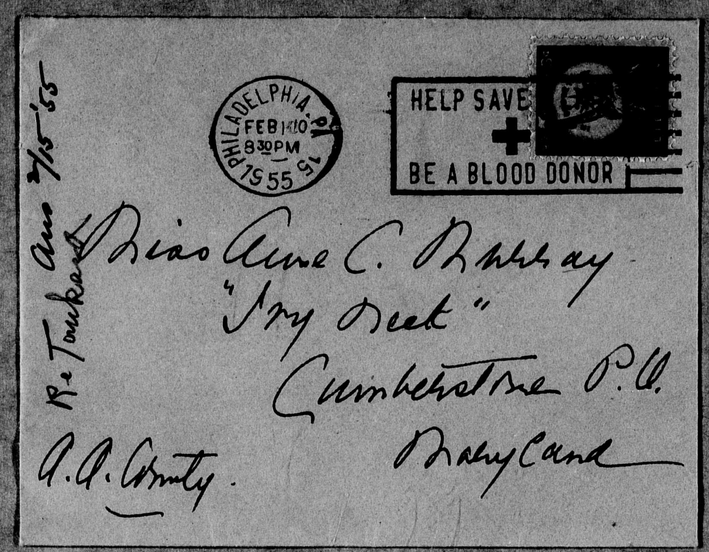
1955 Anne C. Murray incoming letters MS 1996



that I have not been able to get down to see you and Adelaide all winter - just 2 or 3 weeks Ellen Douglas is here with me - Teddy Blackwing has had another nervous breakdown and is in the Penn. Hospital - It is very hard on [redacted] Mrs, other days she is allowed to see him, but seems Rather. And she is very secretive about the whole thing - It apparently happens once to people who have everything! Lovely house, lovely wife plenty of money etc. - I have always said persecute me from psychiatrists! - I can't even spell it! Morris & Hope have gone on a Christmas cruise - all their children are fine & the wonderful Miss Dickson, Hope's old governess of course in charge, so Granny is not needed. They are the most lovely children you ever saw & equally attractive - but a mixed in the whole lot! Dear Cousin Nancy I do think of you two very often, and can't imagine Dry Deck place without Fishes - You have many blessings I know. Will keep in touch when any better news develops. Much love -

Eleanor Thacher
