Dear Miss Murray,

Mrs. Lynn of Washington, D.C. wrote me that she was going to visit you last week if she could; however, her sister died recently, so perhaps she was not able to do so — I thought, therefore, that I would write to you, myself, because I am most interested in clearing up a mystery I stumbled onto through some old letters of Bill's (& our children's) ancestress, Mary Galloway (Mrs. David Lynn).

I have been spending my spare time since our move to
